

THE GEORGIA CENTER for the BOOK At the DeKalb County Public Library and
The Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum

Present

PHILIP LEE WILLIAMS

One of Georgia's favorite authors has an exciting new historical novel set in Civil War-era Atlanta, A Distant Flame. Its story of a young Confederate soldier struggling to survive in the face of a bloody series of battles in and around the city is in the tradition of the best-selling Cold Mountain. Williams teaches creative writing at UGA, and his 10 books include Heart of a Distant Forest, Blue Crystal, Crossing Wildcat Ridge and All the Western Stars.

8 P.M. Wednesday October 20

RICHARD RHODES

One of the nation's most honored writers, Rhodes won the 1988 Pulitzer Prize in History for The Making of the Atomic Bomb. Among his other books are Dark Sun: The Making of the Hydrogen Bomb and Masters of Deceit: The SS-Einsatzgruppen and the Invention of the Holocaust. In his only Atlanta visit this year, he'll be discussing his important, just-published biography, John James Audubon: The Making of an American.

8 P.M. Sunday October 24
